

PREDICT-Meso International Conference

23-24 April 2026

RCPSG, Glasgow

CALL FOR POSTER ABSTRACTS

Abstract Submission Deadline: 30 November 2025

Abstract Results: 1 February 2026

Please read the Abstract submission guidelines carefully

www.predictmeso.com

The PREDICT-Meso International Conference is aimed at all members of the mesothelioma research community. This 2-day event will provide the ideal forum to share your research, while learning from world-leaders in the field. The meeting will also create opportunities for interdisciplinary discussion, debate and networking in a welcoming and informal atmosphere.

Call for Abstracts

We invite authors to submit an abstract for poster display or for oral presentation. A selection of the best abstracts will be invited to present their work orally during the conference. The ePoster showcase will be live for 4 months after the conference dates to extend the life and reach of your poster.

Submit your abstracts online at:

https://www.eventsforce.net/predict_meso2026
by 2359hrs on 30 Nov 2025

Abstract categories

- CLINICAL STUDIES & PATIENT CARE
- TARGETS
- MODELS & THERAPIES
- RISK & RESPONSE

CLINICAL STUDIES & PATIENT CARE

Abstracts may cover clinical studies and any/all aspects of patient care/interactions/research

TARGETS

Abstracts may cover targets, biomarkers and any omics research. Bioinformatic projects may be submitted under this category

MODELS AND TREATMENT

Abstracts may cover research developing or involving in vivo and in vitro models. In vivo models might include genetically engineered mouse models or patient derived xenografts. In vitro models might include cells lines or organoids. Abstracts may also cover drug screening or testing of any suitable therapy using such models

RISK, EARLY DETECTION AND RESPONSE

Abstracts may cover research areas relevant to risk prediction (including risk of developing mesothelioma plus survival and predictive models), early detection methods, or how to measure response to therapy. The latter may, for example, include radiology and AI developments or non-imaging response markers.

We would advise you have a senior colleague review your abstract prior to submission as it is marked at the same standard. Please ensure that your submission is linked to one of the categories listed using the linked proformas.

Who can submit an abstract?

Any PREDICT-Meso Network member can submit an abstract. Anyone with relevant interest may join the PREDICT-Meso Network to submit an abstract. We welcome submissions from all members from students to PIs. Please ensure that your submission is linked to one of the categories listed using the linked proformas.

Word count and format

Please submit your abstract using the outline and links provided in the category overview section below.

The total number of words should not exceed 300 (excluding titles). A further 100 words is allowed for references and title. In addition, you may include up to 2 images or tables to illustrate the work further.

Please note that if you do not complete the mandatory sections your abstract will be rejected. Abstracts which exceed the maximum length will also be rejected.

Please ensure that you have permission to use any images that you display in your abstract submission, otherwise you may be liable for copyright infringement and associated charges. Images can be in any format and up to 10MB in size.

Patient identifiable information must not be included in any abstract.

Tips for submitting your abstract

- Abstracts should be well written – i.e., correct sentence structure, grammar, and spelling. Plain English should be used. If you are not confident in your written English, consider having your abstract reviewed by an experienced writer.
- Abstracts should have all mandatory boxes completed.
- Abstracts should be very clearly relevant to the field of mesothelioma.
- Your abstract should address the “so what?” question. The PREDICT-Meso Network conference will attract delegates from around the world. What does what you have to say relate to people working in different countries and research areas?

If your abstract is selected

All abstracts are scored online. Authors will be notified after 1 FEB 2026 if their abstract has been accepted. You will be able to view your score and read any feedback from the adjudicators by logging into the abstract system using your original login at:

https://www.eventsforce.net/predict_meso2026

The first author of the top-ranked abstracts will be invited to give a 10-minute talk. Other selected abstracts will be invited to display a poster at the conference.

Submit your abstract online by 23:59hrs on 30 November 2025

Feedback available online from 01 February 2026

By submitting an abstract you are giving the PREDICT-Meso to publish the content on its website and in other ways considered appropriate including social media.

The decision of the adjudicators is final, and no correspondence will be entered into.

Note about Attendance

One author for each poster are required to register to attend the meeting and pay the delegate fee.

Please do not submit an abstract if you are unable or unwilling to attend the meeting.

Scoring

Abstracts will be scored by two referees with an overall arbitrator assigned to each of the categories. Incomplete abstracts (i.e., failing to complete mandatory boxes) will lead to the abstract being rejected at the shortlisting phase.

Those marked after shortlisting will be marked according to the following scoring system.

Relevance:

- Is the abstract clearly written to target people working within the field mesothelioma research?

Scientific Rigor:

- Is there a clear question/purpose to the abstract?
- Are the subjects clearly defined, e.g., patient types, and are the methods & presentation thorough and systematic?
- Do the results and/or conclusion accurately reflect the evidence and draw appropriate conclusions?

Clear Learning Points:

- Is there a clear Learning Point for PREDICT-Meso delegates?
- Is the abstract content especially relevant and interesting and may bring new thoughts and ideas to mesothelioma research?

Content:

- Is the abstract well written?
